

Janet Napolitano
Governor

Office of the Governor

* PUBLIC WORKS WEEK *

WHEREAS, Public Works Professionals provide a wide variety of public services vital to our citizens' everyday lives; and

WHEREAS, the support of an understanding and informed citizenry is important to such essential services and programs as parks and recreation, water, sewer, streets, sanitation, traffic control, and others; and

WHEREAS, public works personnel are among the first responders during emergencies and disasters, often working above and beyond the call of duty to maintain or restore needed services, and then working long after other first responders have departed the scene in order to ensure restoration occurs and operations resume; and

WHEREAS, the health, safety and comfort of our state's communities and people greatly depend on these services; and

WHEREAS, the quality and effectiveness of these services are dependent upon the efforts and skills of public works personnel; and

WHEREAS, the infrastructure they build, operate and maintain forms the very foundation upon which our economy and prosperity stems, and on a National level, recognition of Public Works Week enhances public awareness of the essential services and the employees who provide them;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janet Napolitano, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim May 16 - 22, 2004 as

* PUBLIC WORKS WEEK *

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona

Janet Napolitano

GOVERNOR

DONE at the Capitol in Phoenix on this twelfth day of May in the year Two Thousand and Four and of the Independence of the United States of America the Two Hundred and Twenty-eighth.
