LUNCHEON MEETING, Thursday, April 21, 2005
Wayne’s Texas Bar-BQ, 3400 C Street, Anchorage 11:45 A.M.
(Lunch is $15)

Or

Gridlock
Smooth sailing

“Saving Anchorage from Gridlock”

Speakers: Anne Brooks, P.E., Brooks & Associates
Jon Spring, Sr. Transportation Planner

Topic: Anchorage’s Long Range Transportation Plan
Come and hear the current plans and then get your chance to provide some much needed input. (Also look for the insert in the Anchorage Daily News on Monday, April 11, 2005.)

Please, RSVP to: Jim at 269-0605 or jim_amundsen@dot.state.ak.us no later than 3/20, Wednesday noon.

Rand Gaynor has been working on our website. Check it out at: http://alaska.apwa.net/

Alaska Chapter to sponsor 2005 World Congress as a Cooperating Organization
The American Society of Civil Engineers, Alaska Section, is bringing the Environmental & Water Resources Institute 2005 World Congress to Anchorage May 15-19. The Alaska Chapter APWA will be joining the ASCE as a Cooperating Organization. APWA members will enjoy reduced feeRegistrations and are invited to participate in this exiting event.

For detailed information on the 2005 World Congress just open the link posted below.
ASCE/EWRI World Congress website (http://www.asce.org/conferences/ewri2005/)